Mr. Moring:

Mr. Beck today is traveling on business, but perhaps I can assist.

1. I can confirm that 517 pages is the correct total you should have received.
2. I believe the suggested reading order is as follows:
    a. Moring Resp Info - Redacted - Part 1 of Part 1 of 3.pdf – 85 pages.
    b. Moring Resp Info - Redacted - Part 2 of Part 1 of 3.pdf – 90 pages.
    c. Moring Resp Info - Redacted - Part 2 of 3.pdf – 150 pages.
    d. Moring Resp Info - Redacted - Part 1 of Part 3 of 3.pdf – 97 pages.
    e. Moring Resp Info - Redacted - Part 2 of Part 3 of 3.pdf – 95 pages.

Since the responsive documents were originally in a single PDF that was too big to travel through email, the smaller pieces should have the complete contents of the original Part 1 and Part 3 that you mentioned.

I defer to Mr. Beck on any remaining questions you may have about his messages yesterday, once he is able to return to his email. No further response to me on this matter is necessary, but I hope that the above is helpful.

Kind regards,

Marla Dial

Subject: Re: Kyle Moring Complaint #2 Dated August 13, 2026 (PART 2/3)

Mr. Beck,

I confirm receipt of the following five production PDFs transmitted on September 16:

1. Moring Resp Info - Redacted - Part 1 of Part 1 of 3.pdf – 85 pages.
2. Moring Resp Info - Redacted - Part 2 of Part 1 of 3.pdf – 90 pages.
3. Moring Resp Info - Redacted - Part 2 of 3.pdf – 150 pages.
4. Moring Resp Info - Redacted - Part 1 of Part 3 of 3.pdf – 97 pages.
5. Moring Resp Info - Redacted - Part 2 of Part 3 of 3.pdf – 95 pages.

These total 517 PDF pages, not counting the contents of files embedded as attachments within those PDFs.

I did not receive the attachment identified as "Moring Resp Info - Redacted - Part 1 of 3.pdf" in the initial PART 1/3 transmission. Please confirm that the two split Part 1 files replace that attachment and together contain its complete contents. Please likewise confirm that the two split Part 3 files contain the complete contents of the original Part 3, and that splitting preserved all embedded attachments.

Please also confirm the intended reading order. Some correspondence continues across file boundaries that do not follow the filenames' apparent sequence. For example, the last page of "Part 2 of Part 3 of 3" ends with "to assist you with," and the first page of "Part 1 of Part 3 of 3" continues "some of the facts and background."

Upon further review, I located and extracted documents embedded as attachments within the production PDFs. I am therefore not asserting that those documents were omitted merely because their contents do not appear as printed pages.

Please confirm whether these five PDFs, together with their embedded attachments, constitute the City's complete production under my April 9, 2026 request and OAG Letter Ruling OR2026-027532, or identify any additional files already transmitted or still forthcoming.

This correspondence seeks clarification of the existing production; it does not withdraw, replace, or expand my request. My acknowledgment of receipt does not constitute agreement that the production fully satisfies the request or ruling. Please continue to preserve the underlying source emails, attachments, and associated metadata.

Mr. Bailey, please include this receipt and completeness update in the record of my pending Section 552.3215 complaint.

Respectfully,

Kyle Douglas Moring

Subject: Re: Kyle Moring Complaint #2 Dated August 13, 2026 (PART 2/3)

Mr. Beck,

I received your September 16 Part 2 transmission and its attached 150-page PDF. I have not received the separate Part 1 transmission or its attachment. Although your Part 2 email quotes the Part 1 transmittal, the quoted email does not supply the missing attachment. Please resend Part 1 promptly and confirm whether Part 3 has been transmitted.

This correspondence concerns completion of my April 9, 2026 request and compliance with OR2026-027532. I am not withdrawing, replacing, or expanding that request.

Please confirm that the three production parts collectively include all responsive information required to be released under the ruling, including responsive email attachments. For attachments referenced within the produced emails, please identify where their contents appear in the production or explain any omission.

My original preference for PDF copies does not resolve whether the production contains all responsive information. I cannot assess completeness until the missing materials have been received and reviewed.

Please preserve the underlying source emails, attachments, and associated metadata while these compliance issues remain unresolved.

Mr. Bailey, please include this delivery and completeness update in the record of my pending Section 552.3215 complaint.

Respectfully,

Kyle Douglas Moring
