Mr. Moring,

Thank you for the supplemental information. I have let Kent know that there is additional PIA information added to the file. Regarding the criminal complaints, criminal prosecutions does not have the legal authority or jurisdiction to investigate and/or prosecute those complaints. Nor do we have the jurisdiction to review law enforcement investigations or DA's charging/prosecuting decisions. The only way we gain jurisdiction is if the District Attorney formally recuses and asks us to step in or asks for our assistance. Even so, we cannot take every referral that we receive. That is on a case-by-case basis.

Thank you,
